Total number of states w/ barriers to identifying all CSEC as sex trafficking victims:	4 states require some level of force, fraud, or coercion when the victim is a minor.	20 states require third party control to establish the crime of sex trafficking (*10 of these provide some criminal penalties for buyers of sex with children).	21 states have a narrow definition of child sex trafficking that does not identify all commercially sexually exploited children as victims of sex trafficking.

⁴ Ohio Rev. Code Ann. § 2905.32(A) (Trafficking in persons) eliminates the requirement to prove force, fraud, or coercion when the victim is under 16 years of age or the victim is 16 or 17 and the defendant is in a position of authority or trust as described in Ohio Rev. Code Ann. § 2907.3(A)(5), (6), (7), (8), (9), (10), (11), (12), or (13) (Sexual battery).
